Message from Premier Getty

I am pleased to bring you the most recent edition of Programs for Seniors. This booklet contains information about the resources and services available to you from all levels of government and private agencies.

The Government of Alberta recognizes the invaluable contribution seniors have made, and continue to make, in building a society of which we can all be proud.

We are committed to ensuring the programs available to you are among the finest in Canada. And, it is our desire to sustain and deliver quality programs for all Albertans – not just for today, but for our future generations as well.

I encourage you to use the services and programs listed in this booklet. They have been developed in support of a safe and secure lifestyle for seniors.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY
ALBERTA

March 1991

We, the Associate Minister for the Department of Family and Social Services and Chairman of the Seniors Advisory Council for Alberta, are pleased to bring you the updated version of Programs for Seniors.

This reference guide was produced by the Seniors Advisory Council for Alberta, with cooperation from various government departments. Each plays a significant role in providing essential services for the health and well being of our seniors. The information in this booklet is up to date as of March 1991. We welcome any thoughts or input you may have in assisting us to make this unique guide an even more effective resource.

Programs for Seniors emphasizes the government's commitment to meet the crucial needs of our elderly citizens and to acknowledge their contributions. We would like to recognize Alberta's older generation for what they have given so generously over the past years.

We hope you will find this booklet helpful.

Yours very sincerely,

Seniors Advisory Council for Alberta

The Seniors Advisory Council for Alberta is a government-appointed council whose chairman, appointed by the Premier, is an elected member of the legislative assembly. The 14 members are appointed by the Associate Minister of Family and Social Services and represent various regions of the province with one representative each from the Alberta Medical Association, The Alberta Healthcare Association and the Universities.

The Council advises the government on specific programs and policies for senior citizens with regard to priorities and the coordination of programs. It submits an annual report to the government, holds several meetings a year as a whole and has several working subcommittees. Members are making an effort to visit seniors' groups and service agencies in their areas and have coordinated several community workshops throughout the province which focus on general issues of concern to senior citizens.

The Council spearheads Alberta's annual Senior Citizens Week celebrated the first full week in June. The week emphasizes the contribution older people are making to Alberta families and communities.

The council provides a province-wide information service on benefits and programs for older people and supplies demographic and service utilization information relating to persons age 65 and over. The Alberta Seniors Information Line was established to ensure accessibility of information to people throughout the province.

The Council issues a number of publications including the "On Aging" series. A complete list of Council publications is available from the office.

Council members are very interested in the concerns of seniors. To share your comments, phone or write to:

Old Age Security Pension

The Old Age Security Pension (OAS) is a federal benefit available to persons regardless of income or assets who are:

1. at least age 65 (you do not have to be retired);
2. legal residents of Canada;
3. have the required number of years in residence in Canada.

The monthly payment as of January 1991 is $354.92. Payments increase in January, April, July and October of each year if there is an increase in the cost-of-living index.

You must apply for this pension. If possible, send in your application six months before your 65th birthday. Application forms for Old Age Security are available at all POST OFFICES or at any INCOME SECURITY PROGRAMS OFFICE. You must include your birth or baptismal certificate. If you do not have proof of age, the Old Age Security office will help you with this. If you were born outside of Canada, you must also provide proof of legal status as a resident of Canada. The minimum residence requirement is ten years.

Your first cheque will come in the month following your 65th birthday.

If you entered Canada for the first time on July 1, 1977 or later, your Old Age Security is earned at the rate of 1/40th of the regular pension for each complete year of residence in Canada to a maximum of 40 years. Proof of entry is required.

If you have 20 years residence in Canada since your 18th birthday, you can receive Old Age Security payments outside the country; there is no time limitation. If you have not lived in Canada for 20 years since your 18th birthday, you may only receive payments outside of Canada for six months; payments can be applied for again when you return to live in Canada.

A person could qualify under the Reciprocal Agreement. A Reciprocal Agreement on Social Security is an arrangement whereby two countries agree to provide equal treatment to the residents of both countries under each country's laws on social security. This enables the two countries to protect the social security credits earned by an individual in both countries. Age, residence and legal status are still qualifying factors. Minimum residence requirement is still 10 years.

Canada has agreements with the following countries: Australia, Austria, Barbados, Belgium, Denmark, Dominica, Finland, France, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Iceland, Italy, Jamaica, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Saint Lucia, Spain, Sweden and the United States. For further information contact your nearest Income Security Programs office.

Your T4 slip for Old Age Security payments is in the form of a stub which is attached to the January cheque.

It is possible to have your cheques sent directly to your bank account each month; let the Income

Security Office know the name and address of your bank and include your Social Insurance Number in the letter.

The federal government will send you a Senior Citizens (Blue) Card approximately six to eight weeks after you receive your first Old Age Security cheque.

Guaranteed Income Supplement

The Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) is a federal government benefit available to persons who receive the Old Age Security pension and have little or no other income.

This additional benefit must be applied for every year. Eligibility and the amount of the supplement depend on your total family income in the previous calendar year (from January to December) and your marital status.

Income includes earnings, rents, interest, dividends, and amounts received under retirement plans (including Canada Pension Plan). It does not include Old Age Security, Family Allowance or War Veterans Allowance.

The maximum amount of the supplement as of January 1991 is: single, $421.79; married couple, $274.73 for each person. This supplement is added to the federal Old Age Security cheque each month.

NOTE: Spouses living apart or separated because of reasons beyond their control (such as if one is in a nursing home or chronic care hospital) can apply to be considered as single for the purpose of GIS. This also applies to those who have voluntarily decided to separate and who have been living apart for at least six months after the month of separation.

If the cost of living goes up, the supplement goes up in January, April, July and October.

If you leave Canada, the supplement is payable for the month of departure and six additional months. It will be reinstated when residency is resumed in Canada.

Applications for the GIS are sent out in January to those who have been receiving the supplement. It is expected that the application forms will be sent out on or about January 10 to those receiving the maximum supplement and by January 23 for those receiving a partial supplement. The completed forms should be returned before March 31 in order to receive the supplement again in April.

Spouse's Allowance

The Spouse's Allowance is a federal benefit paid to spouses of pensioners receiving the Guaranteed Income Supplement.

To be eligible:

1. You must be the husband or wife of a person receiving the Old Age Security Pension (a common-law relationship may be recognized).
2. You must be age 60 through 64, and you must have lived in Canada at least 10 years before you apply. If born outside of Canada, you must have proof of legal status.

The amount of allowance depends on your combined income in the previous calendar year. Effective January 1991, the maximum payment is $629.65 a month. Payments are increased in January, April, July and October each year if there is an increase in the cost-of-living index.

Your spouse should apply for this federal government allowance six months before his or her 60th birthday, and reapply each year until he or she becomes eligible for the Old Age Security pension at age 65. This allowance continues until age 65 even if the spouse who received Old Age Security dies.

Widowed Spouse's Allowance

This is a federal benefit available to widows/widowers who have little or no other income. It is payable to the widowed spouse of either a legal or common-law marriage. This is not payable if the widow/widower becomes the spouse of another person. Persons who were divorced from a spouse now deceased cannot qualify for this benefit.

To be eligible:

1. You must be age 60 through 64; proof of age is required.
2. You must be a Canadian citizen or legal resident in Canada.
3. You must have resided in Canada after age 18 for a minimum of 10 years.
4. Proof of marriage is required.
5. Death certificate of spouse is required.

If you leave Canada, the allowance is payable for the month of departure and six additional months. It will be reinstated when residence is resumed in Canada.

The amount of allowance depends on your income in the previous calendar year. Effective January 1991, the maximum Widowed Spouse's Allowance is $695.14 a month.

An application must be completed each year. Additional information is available through the Income Security Program offices.

Canada Pension Plan

The Canada Pension Plan (CPP) is a contributory pension plan of the federal government. You may be eligible for benefits if you have paid into the plan for at least one year. You can apply for this pension at age 60 or over. Applications should be made six months prior to the date you wish the pension to begin.

Basic Pension

The basic pension is payable one month after your 65th birthday. It is equal to 25% of your average adjusted monthly pensionable earnings.

You do not have to cease employment to receive the pension. The basic pension amount will be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living.

Applications made between ages 60 and 64

You must have wholly or substantially have ceased working (ie. annual earnings must be less than the current maximum annual CPP retirement pension payable at age 65; in 1990, approximately $6,924).

The basic pension will be decreased by .5% for each month between the date the pension begins and the month after your 65th birthday.

The pension payment will not be re-adjusted at age 65. It will, however, be adjusted to reflect changes in the cost of living.

Applications made at 65 years of age and over

If you continue working past age 65, you will no longer continue making contributions to the pension plan. However, you can delay making an application for the pension and continue to receive .5% increases for each month after your 65th birthday until your pension begins, or until you reach the age of 70.

Spouses in an ongoing relationship can apply to share their CPP retirement pension payments. Both must be at least age 60 and each must have applied for any CPP retirement pension to which he and she may be entitled.

The amount of the pension depends on your wages when employed and the age at which you begin to take the pension payments. Benefits to contributors include:

	1991 Maximum Benefit Rates (CPP) at age 65
1. A monthly retirement pension	$604.86
2. A monthly disability pension to persons under 65	743.64
3. A monthly benefit for children dependent on a disabled person under 65	113.14
4. A monthly spouse's pension for widows/widowers whose spouse had contributed to the plan
- survivor under 65	339.96
- survivor over 65	362.92

5. A monthly pension for orphans 113.14
6. A death benefit 3,050.00

NOTE: T4 slips for Canada Pension Plan payments are mailed separately before the end of February.

If you are eligible for both the Old Age Security Pension and Canada Pension Plan, you may apply for both at the same time at any INCOME SECURITY PROGRAMS OFFICE. Forms are available at any post office.

Veterans Affairs Canada

Benefits are available from the federal government to Canadian and allied war veterans or their dependants. These benefits may also be available to other groups that were in a theatre of action.

Benefits include: War Veterans Allowance, War Disability Pensions, coverage of certain hospital and medical expenses, assistance with the cost of eyeglasses and dental care, prosthetic and surgical or medical supplies, counselling services, and assistance with helping qualified veterans remain in their homes and communities for as long as possible (see Veterans Independence Program, page 20). Funeral and burial grants are also available.

Provincial Programs

Alberta Assured Income Plan

The Alberta Assured Income Plan (AAIP) is a provincial allowance that is automatically paid to all Alberta pensioners who receive the federal Guaranteed Income Supplement, in order to guarantee an annual minimum monthly income.

The monthly amount depends on the amount of Guaranteed Income Supplement you receive. The present maximum payment is $95 a month for each pensioner. The present minimum monthly payment is $10.

You do not apply for this allowance. If you receive the federal Guaranteed Income Supplement you will automatically receive the Alberta allowance. Persons receiving Spouse's Allowance or Widowed Spouse's Allowance are not eligible for this supplement.

(422-4080)

Social Allowance (Supports for Independence)

Social allowance is a provincial financial assistance program which provides help to those who do not have enough income to meet their basic needs.

Eligibility is determined by:

1. Your needs;
2. Total income from all sources, including pensions;
3. Assets. If you have assets of more than $1,500 (if single) or $2,500 (for a family) you will not be eligible. If you are single and employable, only $50 of this may be in cash; for a family, if the head of the household is employable, only $250 of this may be in cash. Assets include such things as cash, money in bank accounts, stocks, bonds, the cash surrender value of life insurance policies and real estate other than your own home.

For more information contact the nearest district office of Alberta Family & Social Services (listed in local telephone directories under Government of Alberta).

Alberta Widows' Pension Program

The Alberta Widows' Pension Program is a provincial financial assistance program available to widows or widowers aged 55 to 65 who have a limited income.

An eligible person must be:

1. A widowed person from a legal marriage;
2. Have an income within the limits allowed by the program;
3. Be an Alberta resident;
4. Be a Canadian citizen or non-sponsored landed immigrant. Sponsored immigrants without Canadian citizenship are not eligible until the term of sponsorship expires.

Financial Benefits

The program will subsidize your income up to the maximum pension amount provided under the program's regulations.

Health Care Benefits

These benefits are available to recipients and their dependants and are similar to those extended to senior citizens in Alberta. They include premium-free coverage under the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan, the Extended Health Benefits Program and the Alberta Blue Cross Plan.

This health care coverage is effective on the date eligibility for the pension is established, providing you are registered with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan. You will automatically receive a Blue Cross card which will entitle you to receive Blue Cross benefits. These benefits will cease at the end of the second month following the date that you are no longer eligible for the Widows' Pension.

Hospital Benefits

All Albertans registered with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan are entitled to insured hospital services provided under the Alberta Hospitalization Benefits Plan. Senior citizens are exempt from hospital admission and user charges.

Housing Benefits

Housing benefits which may be available to recipients of the Widows' Pension are the Property Tax Reduction Benefit or Renters Assistance Grant.

Recipients may also be eligible for the Seniors' Independent Living Program as well as any of the other housing programs outlined in this booklet.

Application forms for the Widows' Pension Program are available at most major financial institutions, provincial buildings, local information centres, Family & Community Support Services offices, or by contacting:

Health Benefits

Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan

The Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan provides coverage for basic medical and other health care services (as outlined below). Albertans registered with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan also receive provincial insured hospital services (as outlined near the end of this HEALTH BENEFITS section).

Persons age 65 and older, their spouses and dependants are not required to pay premiums for health insurance. If you have been registered with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan, you will be sent a Proof of Age questionnaire before your 65th birthday. Please complete the form and return it with a copy of your birth certificate or other proof of age. Do not send an original document, since its safe return cannot be guaranteed. Rather, submit a clear photocopy. A signed statement before a commissioner for oaths is acceptable as proof of age.

If you do not receive this form, write to the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan and include a clear photocopy of your birth certificate or other proof of age. This will ensure that you will not have to pay the premiums for your coverage, beginning the first of the month after your 65th birthday. For information, contact the plan offices, your local information centre (Appendix III) or the Family & Community Support Services office closest to you (Appendix II).

Basic Health Benefits

The following is a list of basic health services provided under the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan.

1. Medically-required Services that are provided by a physician or osteopath and listed under an approved schedule of fees.
2. Certain Specified Oral Surgery procedures that are provided by a dental surgeon and listed in an approved schedule.
3. Chiropractic Services to a maximum of $12.77 for each visit. The maximum is $300 per person in a benefit year. This includes up to $21.12 for X rays.
4. Foot Care and Podiatric Appliances paid according to an approved schedule of fees. Maximum is $300 per person in a benefit year.
5. Medical examinations required for Drivers' Licences as required by law for Albertans just prior to age 75, and as needed thereafter.
6. Eye Examinations. Optometric services consisting of three benefits:
 - 1) a full eye examination (including writing of a prescription and the fittings for glasses);
 - 2) a partial examination (including two or more single diagnostic procedures); and
 - 3) a single diagnostic procedure.

Each of these three benefits is limited to once in each benefit year.

7. Physical Therapy Services to a maximum of $20.80 per day. No maximum is placed upon the amount paid in a benefit year for senior citizens and their dependants.

NOTES:

1. A benefit year runs from July 1 - June 30 of the following year.
2. Please see the following section on PATIENT CHARGES for the extra charges you may be asked to pay.

Patient Charges – Extra Billing

Extra-billing is not permitted for any required medical service, oral surgery or optometric service THAT IS COVERED under the Health Care Insurance Plan.

Medical service here refers to services provided by any physician, whether a general practitioner (family doctor) or specialist, and includes laboratory tests as well as X rays and other radiology tests.

Oral surgery refers to those surgical procedures which a dental surgeon can claim from Alberta Health Care.

Optometric service refers to insured eye examinations and diagnostic procedures provided by an ophthalmologist or optometrist.

Not all services provided by physicians, dental surgeons or optometrists are insured through the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan. The patient is expected to pay the full fee for uninsured services, and should be informed in advance of this fact.

Physicians, dental surgeons and optometrists who extra-bill patients for basic health services must opt out of the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan. This means that Alberta Health Care will not pay any claims submitted by these health care practitioners, OR by their patients. The patient must pay the full amount of the charges, and can not be reimbursed by Alberta Health Care for any part of those charges. Patients must be informed that a practitioner has opted-out when an appointment is made.

A practitioner who is opted-in, and who is submitting claims to Alberta Health Care, may still charge the patient for certain uninsured supplies, procedures and services. In addition, there are some medical services that are not insured under the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan, such as medical/legal advice, medical advice provided by phone, or third-party medical examinations required for insurance or employment, etc. The charges for any of these must be paid by the patient and cannot in turn be claimed from Alberta Health Care. Discuss with your practitioner any such charges for uninsured supplies, procedures or services.

Patient Charges – Non-Medical Services

The extra-billing ban does not refer to the additional amounts you, the patient, may be charged by the health-related practitioners who submit claims to Alberta Health Care for the non-medical services they provide. These practitioners include chiropractors, podiatrists and physical therapists. Non-medical services also refers to any care and treatment included under Alberta Health Care's special programs (Extended Health Benefits and Alberta Blue Cross Non-Group Membership).

In each of these instances, some limits are applied to the amount of insured coverage, and accordingly, in each case, the patient may be billed directly for the balance of the fees charged beyond the maximum amount that can be claimed in any benefit period.

To Report Extra-Billing

If, after any additional charges have been fully explained to you, you still have reason to believe that you have been extra-billed by an opted-in medical doctor, dental surgeon or optometrist, you should send a written complaint to Alberta Health Care. Please report all details, and include your receipt for any extra charges you have paid.

Questions regarding the additional amounts charged by a chiropractor, podiatrist or physical therapist should be addressed to the appropriate Alberta professional group to which the practitioner belongs.

Temporary Travel or Visits

1. NOTIFY ALBERTA HEALTH CARE WHEN LEAVING THE PROVINCE FOR SIX MONTHS OR LONGER.

Please let Alberta Health Care know if you expect to be out of the province for six months or longer. Give them your expected dates of departure and return along with the reason for your absence.

Advise Alberta Health Care again if the expected time of your return is delayed; also if a shorter absence is extended to last six months or more. Finally, contact Alberta Health Care upon your return. These steps will help to ensure you have continuous coverage.

2. CARRY YOUR CARD TO SHOW YOUR ALBERTA COVERAGE.

When you leave Alberta temporarily, you take your Alberta hospital and health coverage along with you.

Your up-to-date ALBERTA HEALTH CARE card is needed to show valid Alberta coverage, so it is important to carry it along when you travel.

The costs of health services across Canada are fairly similar, and generally you are well covered anywhere in Canada - either under provincial reciprocal agreements or by submitting claims to Alberta Health Care for reimbursement.

3. SERIOUSLY CONSIDER GETTING EXTRA HEALTH INSURANCE FOR TRIPS OUTSIDE OF CANADA.

Medical and hospital costs in some countries run much higher than in Canada. The amount paid by Alberta Health Care for any medical or hospital care you may require is based on the Alberta rates for the same or similar services.

You are responsible for paying the difference which may run into hundreds or thousands of dollars, particularly if hospitalization is required.

Extra health coverage for travel outside of Canada is available to assist you in paying the additional amounts for any such higher medical and hospital charges. You can purchase this extra health protection from any of a number of private insurance companies.

You are strongly urged to consider purchasing extra health coverage when you travel or visit outside of Canada. Do be sure to carefully check what is covered by any extra health insurance you are considering, also the extent of coverage and the conditions, so that you are fully aware of exactly what protection you will have.

Alberta Blue Cross Plan

This insurance plan covers additional health care benefits. Senior citizens, their spouses and dependants do not pay premiums for Blue Cross coverage. When the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan receives proof that you are or your spouse is 65, you will automatically be covered by Alberta Blue Cross. This coverage begins the first of the month following your birthday. You will receive a Blue Cross card for Group "66." You must present this card to obtain Blue Cross benefits.

A Blue Cross benefit year is from July 1 to June 30 of the following year. Blue Cross pays the following for seniors and their dependants.

- 1. HOSPITAL COSTS: An allowance of up to $100 per day to apply against hospital charges remaining after government credit has been applied, when a participant is admitted to a general hospital outside of Canada.
- 2. DRUGS: 80% of the cost of prescription drugs, medications and insulin, if supplied by a licenced pharmacist on a doctor's prescription, and, if on the provincial Drug Benefit List implemented July 1, 1991. You pay 20% of the cost. The pharmacist bills Blue Cross directly for the remaining 80% if you present your plastic "direct bill" identification card.

NOTE: The Drug Benefit List does not include over-the-counter drug products, therefore even with a prescription, over-the-counter drugs are not covered.

3. PROFESSIONAL AMBULANCE SERVICES: Alberta Blue Cross accepts liability for usual and reasonable charges for professional ambulance services to transport a patient to or from active treatment hospitals. Most ambulance operators will bill Blue Cross directly; your local ambulance service can verify exact charges and billing arrangements. For further information, please contact your nearest Alberta Blue Cross office.

For the services listed below, you pay the bill, then submit the receipt to the Blue Cross office for reimbursement.

1. REGISTERED CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES: For the treatment of mental or emotional illness, coverage is $20 a visit to a maximum of $100 in a benefit year.
2. HOME NURSING CARE: Covered up to a maximum of $200 for a family unit per benefit year for service provided by a practical or registered nurse (not related to you) on the recommendation of your doctor.
3. APPLIANCES: On written order of a physician:
 - a) artificial eyes.
 - b) artificial limbs (excepting myoelectric-controlled prosthesis).
 - c) braces which have a rigid support of metal or plastic, manufactured according to specifications, on the written order of a physician.
 - d) repairs or replacement of such appliances may also be covered.
 - e) mastectomy prosthesis: 50% of the usual charge on the written order of a physician.

(The supporting brassiere is not covered by Blue Cross.)

4. DENTAL CARE: Repair or extraction of natural teeth damaged by a direct accidental external blow, if repair or extraction is done within 12 months of injury. The total cost is covered.

The Extended Health Benefits Program

This Alberta program for senior citizens helps pay for eyeglasses, dental care and dentures.

Coverage begins on your 65th birthday and includes your spouse and dependants. If you are not registered as a senior citizen with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan, see the beginning of this Health Benefits section for details on registration. REGISTRATION WITH THE ALBERTA HEALTH CARE INSURANCE PLAN MAKES YOU ELIGIBLE FOR THIS PROGRAM.

Present your Alberta Health Care card to obtain your benefits under the Extended Health Benefits Program.

NOTE: If the spouse aged 65 dies, coverage for the surviving spouse under 65 and dependants is discontinued at the end of the second month following the month in which the death occurred.

There are financial and time limits that Alberta Health Care must follow, and payments cannot be made for services that exceed these limits. At the very start, ask the practitioner exactly how much of the overall costs will be covered by Alberta Health and what you should expect to pay.

For further information about the following benefits, contact your local information centre (Appendix III) or the nearest Family & Community Support Services office (Appendix II).

1. Eyeglasses

Before you make an appointment, you are advised to make sure that you are eligible for benefits. To obtain an eligibility letter, write the Extended Health Benefits program or call 427-1470.

The total cost of glasses (lens and frames) is not covered. Before ordering glasses, ask the dispenser how much you must pay, how much Extended Health Benefits will pay and ask about the method of payment. There are two ways your bill can be paid:

- a) Extended Health Benefits can be billed directly for the allowed amount, and you will be asked to pay the difference between this and the total cost of the glasses.
- b) You may be asked to pay the total cost of your glasses; if so, ask for a completed claim form at the dispenser's office, sign it and send it to EXTENDED HEALTH BENEFITS, Box 1376, Edmonton, T5J 2Y6. Allow at least six weeks for the refund.

When you are choosing your glasses, be sure they fit well and that you can see clearly. Once the claim has been paid on your behalf, you may not be eligible to submit another such claim over the next 36 months (three years) from the date the goods are received.

NOTE: If you are not satisfied with your eyeglasses, ask your optometrist or ophthalmic dispenser to make adjustments. Remember, when the eyeglasses you have ordered are made, even if you refuse them or return them as unsatisfactory, payment still has to be made. Once claimed from Alberta Health Care, this is the one set you are allowed over a period of 36 months (three years).

When your eyeglasses have been adjusted to the extent that the optometrist or ophthalmic dispenser states nothing more can be done, and if your eyeglasses are still unsatisfactory, you can report your problem to the appropriate organization as follows:

Alberta Guild of Ophthalmic Dispensers
Room 1140, 10830 Jasper Avenue
Edmonton, Alberta
T5J 2B3

Alberta Association of Optometrists
#1, 9333 - 50 Street
Edmonton, Alberta
T6B 2L5

Extended Health Benefits for eyeglasses include payment toward:

- a) One pair of bifocal or trifocal glasses every 36 months (three years), or payment toward one pair of distance glasses and one pair of reading glasses if you wish these in place of trifocals or bifocals;
- b) A change of lenses if you have eye surgery which affects your vision, and requires a change of prescription;
- c) The cost of repairs or replacement glasses if your glasses are accidentally damaged beyond repair;
- d) Payment by the Program is based on the whole-sale cost of items (glasses, lens and frames). Therefore you will likely be required to pay more than this amount;

- e) Tinting of lenses is not covered, but the Program will pay what it would cost for untinted lenses with the same corrections. Contact lenses are not covered by the Program;
- f) The maximum benefit payable for new frames is $46.10 (effective May 1, 1991). You will have to pay the difference between this and the combined charge of the frames and dispensing. Check with dispensers, as some have "discontinued" frames available at reduced prices.

To obtain reimbursement for eyeglasses, write to:

 (427-1470)

2. Dental Care and Dentures

The total cost of dental care and dentures is not covered. Before you make an appointment, you are advised to make sure that you are eligible for benefits. To obtain an eligibility letter, write the Extended Health Benefits program or call 427-1470.

Most dentists and denturists will bill the program directly, but there may be an additional charge not covered by the program. Ask about the method of payment and the cost before making an appointment with a dentist or denturist.

In some cases, a dentist or denturist may ask you to pay the total cost, and then will provide you with a completed claim form to sign and send to EXTENDED HEALTH BENEFITS, Box 1376, Edmonton, T5J 2Y6 for a refund. There may be a difference between the amount you pay the dentist or denturist and the amount the program will reimburse you.

Effective May 1, 1991, the maximum dental benefit is $960 per person for dental care and dentures over any two consecutive calendar years (January 1st through December 31st).

The $960 limit applies to benefits for fillings, extraction and the repair of natural teeth as well as orthodontic work, partial dentures, full dentures, denture repairs and denture relines.

Additional limits apply to the following services:

NOTE: The time period stated for each service is measured from the date the service was provided.

- a) one complete denture or reset including rebase for each arch once every 60 months (five years);
- b) one complete denture reset for each arch once every 60 months (five years);
- c) one partial denture for each arch once every 60 months (five years);
- d) within a five-year period (60 months) it is possible to obtain a partial denture for one arch and have it replaced by a complete denture if necessary;
- e) one denture reline or rebase every 24 months (two years);
- f) payment for major orthodontics (straightening of teeth) with prior approval by the Alberta Dental Association and then approval by Alberta Health Care;
- g) gold inlays on dentures are not covered;
- h) there are restrictions for occlusive adjustments. Consult your dentist.

Except for the $960 maximum benefit for two consecutive calendar years, all time periods are measured from the dates the services were provided.

Note concerning dentures:

It could take as long as three months for you to get adjusted to new dentures, so do not give up and begin using old dentures. If your new dentures do not seem to fit, ask your dentist or denturist to make adjustments.

Remember, when the dentures you have ordered are made, even if you refuse them or return them as unsatisfactory, they still have to be paid for.

Once claimed from Alberta Health Care, this is the ONE set allowed over the period of 60 months (five years) from the date the goods are received.

If your dentures have been adjusted to the extent that the dentist or denturist states there is nothing more to be done and your dentures are still unsatisfactory, you should write to:

Alberta Aids to Daily Living (AADL)

The Alberta Aids to Daily Living Program (AADL), in cooperation with authorizers and vendors, assists individuals who have a chronic disability or illness, and individuals who are terminally ill, to secure certain basic medical equipment and supplies necessary for more independent functioning at home or in a home-like setting.

Assistance involves subsidizing the costs of the medical equipment and supplies authorized for the individual.

A wide range of benefits is available and includes hearing aids and medical/surgical supplies and rehabilitation equipment.

1. Hearing Aids

If your hearing problems cannot be corrected by medical or surgical treatment, you may want to consider a hearing aid. The basic tests for the selection and fitting of hearing aids can be done by either a clinical audiologist or a hearing aid practitioner.

The majority of hearing aid practitioners and private practice audiologists have an agreement with the government to provide hearing aid benefits.

WARNING: Some hearing aid dealers have not signed an agreement with the government, and you will not receive funding for services provided by them; ask about this before making an appointment.

Before hearing aid services are provided, the hearing aid supplier will require you to obtain a written statement from your physician indicating there is no medical reason why an aid should not be fitted. This is most important, so be sure to see your doctor.

After a minimum 28-day trial period following the fitting of the aid, you will be asked to sign a certificate stating satisfaction. Payment to the supplier will not be made by the program until you have signed.

In some cases, it takes more than the 28-day trial period to judge whether a hearing aid is going to give the best results possible. It may take some time to adjust to a hearing aid. Do not hesitate to see your supplier in regard to your aid performance and an extension of the trial period.

DO NOT SIGN THE ACCEPTANCE FORM UNTIL YOU ARE COMPLETELY SATISFIED.

The supplier will service and adjust the hearing aid and earmold, if applicable, for 12 months after the trial period. She or he will be attempting to contact you at least twice during the year in order to assess your satisfaction with the hearing aid. If you have any concerns, you should contact your supplier immediately for the necessary follow-up service.

Limitations of the program are:

- a) Your hearing aid supplier will provide 12 months servicing, including repairs and parts.
- b) Replacement of batteries is always at your own cost.
- c) The program will pay the invoice cost of factory repairs once per benefit year following the expiry of the 12-month warranty period.
- d) A hearing aid will be provided for one ear only.
- e) Loss of a hearing aid before the end of a four-year period is not covered by AADL. You are advised to arrange for insurance to cover loss of hearing aids.

After a four-year period, if your hearing aid is no longer serviceable or the hearing impairment has changed, the program may approve another aid. Your supplier can explain the hearing aid replacement procedure.

2. Medical/Surgical Supplies and Rehabilitation Equipment

These items are supplied to eligible persons who are disabled for a long term and to individuals who are chronically or terminally ill.

Seniors requiring a benefit must see a program "authorizer" registered with the AADL Program. Authorizers are health professionals located at your local health unit and in many hospitals. They will assess the need for benefits and complete an authorization form to order the benefits. Most items also require a medical doctor's prescription which verifies medical need for the equipment.

Benefits include: medical/surgical supplies such as ostomy products; incontinence and catheter supplies; dressings for certain conditions; respiratory equipment; mobility aids such as walkers and wheelchairs; environmental aids such as bath seats, patient lifters, and commodes; support items such as soft support garments and pressure gradient stockings; and custom-made orthopedic footwear for persons with bony foot deformities. Off-the-shelf orthopedic shoes are not provided.

Many supplies are obtained through retail pharmacies and other suppliers. Larger equipment is purchased through the program unit and is provided on loan through a number of supply companies which will deliver the equipment and will maintain it in good operating condition.

Program authorizers and suppliers have complete lists of all items provided and how often you can receive them.

Payment for AADL Benefits

Cost Sharing. Eligible persons share in the cost of AADL benefits. A recipient must pay 25% of the cost of the benefits to a maximum of $500 a year for each family. A benefit year is from July 1 - June 30 of the next year.

Cost sharing exemptions. A person may be exempted from cost sharing if he or she receives the Guaranteed Income Supplement, or the Alberta Widows' Pension.

Exempt persons receiving AADL benefits will be issued a Benefit Assistance Card by the Program with a client reference number and expiry date. Any eligible person not receiving a Benefit Assistance Card should call or write the AADL office listed below.

Only certain medical and surgical supplies and equipment are provided. To ensure coverage you must obtain an authorization form before you contact a supplier. The program does not reimburse people for items purchased prior to assessment by registered program authorizers.

EXCEPTION: To obtain custom-made orthopedic footwear benefits, a specific prescription from a medical doctor may be taken directly to a specialty shoemaker or orthotist supplier registered with the program.

SPECIAL DIETS AND DIET SUPPLEMENTS ARE NOT A BENEFIT.

ARTIFICIAL EYES AND LIMBS AND RIGID METAL OR PLASTIC BRACES ARE NOT COVERED BY THE PROGRAM (See section on Alberta Blue Cross).

General Hospitals

General hospitals provide a range of acute care services on an in-patient and out-patient basis. Hospital benefits cover in-patient care and services at the standard ward level. You are eligible for provincial insured hospital services if you are covered under the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan. Admission to a general hospital is arranged by your physician.

Helping Services

Community Health Nursing

Community health nurses assist seniors and their families to improve and maintain their health and independence. The community health nurse may provide health education and counselling to individuals and groups on a variety of health related concerns including: health practices, family relationships, life changes and chronic disease management.

In many areas, a seniors wellness clinic is available. In this setting, the community health nurse may provide health assessments, blood pressure, vision and hearing screening, counselling, referral, and health education sessions. Immunization against some diseases, such as influenza (flu) may be offered.

As well, community health nurses may make home visits to seniors who are bereaved, recently discharged from the hospital, isolated or at risk of developing health problems.

Community health nursing services are offered throughout the province by local health units. The service is free of charge. Contact your nearest health unit office (see listing in Appendix I) for details on programs in your area.

If You Need Help:

Most older people would like to continue living in their own homes or apartments. Sometimes when help is needed or illness strikes, older people or their families and friends may feel that they (the seniors) have to move from their homes to a lodge, nursing home or auxiliary hospital. This may not be necessary.

Often, health care and other services can be provided in the home.

It is sometimes difficult to know where to go for help in obtaining the services you need or to know what services are available.

In many Alberta communities, efforts are now being made to make this easier. Call the nearest health unit office (see listing in Appendix I). A staff member from the Home Care Program will talk with you to determine your needs and explain what services are available in your community. Together you will decide what you need, and the home care staff member will assist you in obtaining the necessary help.

The following are agencies and services available to help you in your community.

Home Care/Community Long Term Care

Home Care is available through your local health unit. It provides a range of home health and support services to people who require these services as a result of a health condition which affects their ability to function independently. Health services include nursing, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, respiratory therapy, speech therapy and nutrition services.

Support services, which include personal care assistance, homemaking and other home management services and respite care, may also be supplied by the Home Care Program and are free for the first two week period. Recipients not receiving the Guaranteed Income Supplement are assessed a fee based on a fixed hourly rate for the services with the exception of personal care assistance.

Recipients of the Guaranteed Income Supplement, Widows' Pension and Social Allowance benefits receive services from the Home Care Program free of charge.

Each person must be registered through the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan to receive health services without charge. A medical authorization from the person's physician is required in order to receive any service from Home Care.

Referrals are accepted from family, friends, doctors or individuals themselves.

For information about the Home Care Program in your area, contact your local Health Unit (see Appendix I). Seniors Emergency Medical Alert Program (see Housing Section).

Home Help

In some communities Family and Community Support Service offices offer home chore services, transportation, visiting services and various outreach programs to seniors in the community. For information about the services in your area, call your nearest Family and Community Support Service office listed in Appendix II.

Transportation Assistance (see Transportation Section)

Assistance is also available through the following agencies:

Victorian Order of Nurses

The Victorian Order of Nurses (VON) is a nursing service administered by voluntary boards. Funding is provided through fees for service as well as through funds received from the United Way, government grants and private donations. Offices are located in Calgary, Edmonton, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge.

The VON provides a number of different programs. All are committed to providing high quality care which will, whenever possible, allow people to remain in their own homes as long as possible. Helping people to maintain and improve their health is the focus of all VON programs. The VON provides footcare services in many community-based footcare clinics; adult day care services for frail, elderly persons in the community and nursing care for people in their homes.

A fee for service is charged and may be covered by government programs, or to a limit of $200 per year by Alberta Blue Cross, or by third party insurance plans. A fee based on ability to pay will be charged if you don't qualify for any of these funding programs.

Day Support Programs and Day Hospitals

Day Support programs are group programs, which individuals may attend on a daily basis. They are intended for people who are frail and/or disabled and who need health maintenance and social/recreational activities. The programs take place in a variety of settings.

Day hospitals are for people who require specialized assessment, treatment, and rehabilitation services. Individual care plans are developed. These programs may be available through acute care and auxiliary hospital settings.

To find out if there is a day support program or a day hospital in your community, call the nearest health unit listed in Appendix I.

Geriatric Assessment and Rehabilitation Hospital

The Edmonton General Hospital and the Colonel Belcher Hospital in Calgary have specialized geriatric assessment and rehabilitation programs. For information concerning these programs contact:

T2R 0X7

NOTE: If all you need is a living situation where you are with other older people you could consider self contained apartments or lodges. Self contained apartments provide accommodation to senior citizens at a reasonable rent. Lodges provide room and board to senior citizens who cannot, or do not wish to, handle their own house-keeping. Some assistance to residents may be provided through Home Care. More detail on self contained apartments and lodges is located in the section of Housing (page 26).

Long Term Care Centres

Long term care centres in Alberta (nursing homes and auxiliary hospitals) provide room and board and a range of care services, from personal care with nursing supervision to skilled medical and nursing care. These centres vary in size and are located throughout the province.

Effective July 1, 1991, residents are responsible for the following accommodation charges:

- $17.52 a day for standard accommodation
- $20.44 a day for double accommodation
- $24.82 a day for single accommodation

The province pays for the balance of the care costs. Rates will be indexed quarterly to the cost of living as reflected in payments from Old Age Security, Guaranteed Income Supplement, and the Alberta Assured Income Plan.

Also, effective July 1, 1991, residents of nursing homes and auxiliary hospitals will not be charged for the cost of prescription drugs and ambulance services.

In order to qualify for coverage of the associated care costs, an individual requiring nursing home type care must have:

- lived in Alberta for three consecutive years at any time previously,

OR

- lived in Alberta for one year immediately prior to applying, and been a resident of Canada for 10 years or more.

Admission to a Long Term Care Facility

In many Alberta communities, admission to a long term care centre is based on an assessment of need carried out by the staff of the home care program.

When you apply for assistance in obtaining helping services, you and the home care staff member may decide that the most appropriate service for you would be that provided by a long term care centre. If this decision is made, the home care staff will then work with the appropriate placement committee to find the right centre for you.

For more information about admission to long term care centres, contact the nearest office of your health unit (see Appendix I).

Alberta Health Facilities Review Committee

This committee of 12 is appointed by the provincial government to visit general hospitals, mental hospitals, auxiliary hospitals, nursing homes and senior citizens' lodges throughout the province, for the purpose of monitoring and evaluating them on behalf of users and the public at large. The visits are unannounced.

The committee also has a mandate to investigate complaints regarding health institutions. The address is:

Housing Services

Financial Aid for Accommodation

Senior Citizen Renter Assistance Program

A provincial grant of $1,200 a year is available to you if you are 65 or over, have rented accommodation in Alberta for at least 120 days during the year and have not already claimed a homeowner refund for that year.

You must apply for this grant every year. However, application forms will be mailed in May of each year to persons who received this grant in the previous year.

A married couple can only make one application between them, unless they are legally separated.

A widow or widower between the ages of 60 and 64 years, whose deceased spouse was 65 years or older and eligible at the time of death, may qualify for the Renters Grant. A recipient of the Alberta Widows' Pension who is between the ages of 55 and 64 and is receiving a pension or additional benefits may also be eligible.

People living in subsidized housing, such as senior citizens' apartments and lodges, are eligible for a $600 grant. Those living in nursing homes, active treatment/auxiliary hospitals or members of a housing co-operative association residing in a housing co-op do not qualify.

Application forms for this annual grant are available in June of each year at Treasury Branches, local information centres, senior citizens' apartments, lodges and Family and Community Support Services offices or by contacting:

Renters Assistance for Owners of Mobile Homes

A provincial rental assistance grant of $1,000 is available for those 65 and over who own and have resided in a mobile home on rented land for at least 120 days and who have not received a property tax reduction benefit. A married couple can only make one application between them, unless they are legally separated.

A widow or widower between the ages of 60 and 64 years, whose spouse was 65 years or older and eligible at the time of death, may qualify. A recipient of the Alberta Widows' Pension who is between the ages of 55 and 64 years and is receiving a pension or additional benefits may also be eligible.

Application is made on the same form as for the Renters Grant.

Further information is available at Alberta Municipal Affairs (see address under Renters Grant).

Seniors' Emergency Medical Alert Program

As of January 1, 1990, this new provincial program provides low and moderate income senior renters with grants of up to $700 to purchase an approved medical alert home unit from an approved medical alert agency. The equipment located in the home consists of two parts:

1. a small portable transmitter normally worn either around the neck or on the wrist
2. a piece of equipment called a base station (the size of a large phone book) which normally sits beside or under a telephone.

By simply pressing a button on your transmitter, you can call for help if you have a medical emergency.

NOTE: If you are a senior homeowner or a disabled individual, you may apply for grant money under one of the other programs discussed below. If you are eligible, some of your grant money under these other programs may be used toward the purchase of an approved medical alert unit.

Eligibility

You may be eligible for the program provided you are:

- a senior citizen 65 years of age or older or a widow/widower 55 years of age or older;
- living in rental accommodation in Alberta for at least nine months per year;
- a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant with at least one year residency in Alberta and three years' residency in Canada; and in receipt of Alberta Assured Income Plan benefits or have a household income of $25,000 per year or less.

The program also provides one-time agency grants of up to $20,000 to new or existing non-profit groups to help them establish or expand emergency medical alert networks.

Important Information

- You should not expect to be reimbursed for a medical alert unit that was purchased before your application was approved.
- You will be responsible for installation costs and monthly user fees charged by the agency to which you subscribe. These fees will not be reimbursed.
- One medical alert unit per household is eligible. Each unit consists of one base station and is available with one or more transmitters.

Property Tax Reduction Benefits

Provincial property tax reduction benefits are available for people age 65 or over who live in their own homes for at least 120 days during the tax year and who have not claimed a Renters Assistance Grant for that year.

The maximum property tax reduction is $1,000 or total taxes. The first part of the benefit is removal of the entire provincial education tax which the provincial government pays for everyone. Then the remainder of the $1,000 can be used to reduce property taxes up to the total amount of the tax, or to $1,000, whichever is less.

A widow or widower between the ages of 60 and 64 years, whose spouse was 65 years or older at the time of death, if he or she continues to own and live in the home, may receive this reduction. A recipient of the Alberta Widows' Pension who is between the ages of 55 and 64 years and is receiving a pension or additional benefits may also be eligible.

Application forms for these benefits may be sent each year with your property tax notice, or are available at your municipal tax office in June of each year.

The completed application should be returned to your municipality. Further information is available from Alberta Municipal Affairs at 422-2118 (see address under Renters Grant).

Seniors' Independent Living Program

As of January 1, 1990, this provincial program assists low and moderate income senior homeowners to repair or improve their home. Grants of up to $4,000 will be available (depending upon income and previous benefits received under the Seniors' Home Improvement Program or its Extension).

There are three ways to use the grant money:

- Permanent repairs and improvements to the home are eligible. Examples of this type of work are: repairs to a fire or burglar alarm, improved heating in the home, or installation of siding on the home or garage.
- Upon receiving prior approval from the program office, 5% of the grant funds may be used toward minor repairs and maintenance such as carpet cleaning, landscaping, window cleaning or snow removal.
- Up to $700 of your grant money may be used toward the purchase of an approved medical alert unit. Prior approval of the equipment and the supplier must be given by Alberta Municipal Affairs before payment will be made (see description of Seniors' Emergency Medical Alert Program).

Eligibility

You may be eligible for this new program if you meet the following requirements:

- You are a homeowner 65 years of age or older or a widow/widower 55 years of age or older;
- You are a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant with at least three years' residency in Canada;
- You have lived in Alberta at least one year prior to the date of application;
- You live in your home at least nine months of the year; and
- You receive Alberta Assured Income Plan benefits or have a household income for the previous year of $25,000 or less.

Important Information:

- You should not expect reimbursement for work done, for materials that were purchased, or for a medical alert unit that was purchased before your application has been approved.
- The relationship between your annual household income and how much grant money you may receive from this program is as follows:

Household Income

for the Previous Calendar Year

Grant Assistance

$19,000 or less or receiving the Alberta Assured Income Plan (supplement)	$4,000
$19,001-$22,000	$2,000
$22,001-$25,000	$1,000

- If you have received benefits under the Seniors' Home Improvement Program or the Extension, these benefits will be deducted from the assistance available under the Seniors' Independent Living Program. However, every eligible household can be considered for a grant of at least $1,000.

Home Adaptation Program

Benefits

As of January 1, 1990, this provincial program offers several enhancements to eligible homeowners, tenants or landlords. Grants of $5,000 are available to modify housing units for wheelchair users or persons whose disability will eventually require the use of a wheelchair. Grants are made for permanent modifications which improve and facilitate access and occupancy in the home. Landlords may also receive grants for each new housing unit which is constructed for wheelchair users.

Up to $700 of your grant money may be used toward the purchase of an approved medical alert unit from the approved agency.

Eligibility

- There must be a wheelchair user, or an individual whose disability will eventually require the use of a wheelchair, residing in the home.
- Adjusted household income must be less than $30,000 per year or the applicant must be a recipient of Alberta Assured Income Plan or of Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped benefits. Adjusted family income is defined as the gross income of both the wage earner and spouse combined, less deductions for the spouse and dependent children.
- A homeowner or tenant must have resided in Alberta for one year immediately preceding the application for a grant.
- A homeowner or tenant must be a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant with at least three years' residency in Canada.

Important Information

- Your grant money can be used toward a variety of modifications to improve wheelchair accessibility and movement in the home. Examples are such modifications as special showers or levered faucets, lower cupboards or sinks, ramps or lifts, and approved security systems.
- Landlords and tenants are eligible to apply for this grant. A landlord must agree to try to rent to an eligible tenant for a period of no less than three years, and the tenant, landlord and Alberta Municipal Affairs must be in agreement on the proposed improvements.

- You should not expect to be reimbursed for modifications that were done or for a medical alert unit that was purchased before your application has been approved.

Housing For Senior Citizens Lodges

Lodges provide room and board to senior citizens who cannot, or do not wish to, handle their own housekeeping.

Lodges are located throughout the province. The average lodge accommodates between 40 and 65 persons and has both single and double rooms. Furniture, drapes and linen are provided. Complete meal services in a central dining hall are provided for all residents.

Rental rate guidelines are set by the provincial government.

The maximum rates as of April, 1991 are:

- $462 a month, each person, for a double room
- $514 a month for a single room
- $601 a month for a special room (large).

The local foundation (municipally appointed board) managing each lodge is responsible for handling applications, selecting tenants and setting the rules and regulations for the lodge.

The general admission requirements are:

1. reasonable mental and physical health;
2. Alberta residency for one year prior to application;

3. at least 65 years of age (one member of a couple must be 65 years or older).

For more information, contact your local foundation, information centre or your Family and Community Support Services Office (Appendix II).

Provincial Lodge Standards Review Committee

This committee is appointed and acts in an advisory capacity to the Minister of Municipal Affairs. Members of the Committee will:

1. Visit lodges to ensure that the quality of services provided meets the minimum operating standards.
2. Investigate complaints with respect to lodges.
3. Make recommendations on improvements to lodges.

The Committee address is:

Homes for Special Care

In some communities privately operated lodges, licenced by the provincial government, provide room, board and some personal care for older residents.

Admission requirements and fees are determined by the management of each home. For more information, contact your local information centre (Appendix III), your nearest health unit office (Appendix I) or your Family and Community Support Services Office (Appendix II).

Apartments

Self-contained apartments are designed to provide accommodation for senior citizens at a reasonable rent.

The units are either bachelor or one-bedroom apartments with stoves, refrigerators and carpets. Lounges and laundry facilities are available in each project. Rents in the buildings built under the present plan are based on income. A senior citizen pays rent of 25 percent of his or her gross income.

Cottages or self-contained units built prior to the present plan charge a flat rate which is considerably lower than that charged by privately owned apartments. Monthly rates as of April 1, 1991 are: bachelor $211, one bedroom $308.

If you are a resident of Alberta and can manage your own housework, you may be eligible for a senior citizen's apartment. Since the supply of housing available is limited, priority is given to those in greatest need. Need is determined by your household income, your assets, condition of your present accommodation, the amount of your present rent and the availability of services to you.

Applications are made directly to the project management group which selects the tenants.

Life Enrichment Opportunities

Life enrichment includes a variety of ongoing activity and learning possibilities. These opportunities can be social, recreational, cultural or educational. The following pages can provide information to assist you in exploring new ideas or in expanding your present interests.

Senior Centres

Senior centres, often referred to as "drop-in centres", are located throughout the province. Often operated by an organization of retired or semi-retired people these centres offer a variety of social, recreational, sport and educational activities. Many also offer service activities such as outreach, friendly visiting, meals, meals-on-wheels, information and referral services and home handyman. Even seniors who are ill or house-bound can benefit from these programs as service activities are often aimed at helping and supporting these seniors.

Also operating throughout the province are a variety of social clubs or senior groups. These groups provide an opportunity for social activity.

Most senior centres are financially independent and raise their own funds. However, a number of centres receive assistance with operating expenses from Family and Community Support Services (Appendix II). There are also two programs through the federal government aimed specifically at providing funding opportunities to senior organizations (See New Horizons).

Family and Community Support Services Program

This provincial/municipal program available in many parts of Alberta is designed to promote the general social well-being of individuals and groups of all ages by preventing or minimizing those conditions which tend to reduce personal well-being.

Through the Family and Community Support Services Programs, provincial and municipal funding is provided for services of interest to senior citizens, such as senior centres, home support services and meals-on-wheels.

Most Family and Community Support Services Programs have a director. These individuals are knowledgeable about social and health services provided by other agencies and government departments and are aware of new program developments and funding sources.

For information about the kinds of services in your area, contact your local Family and Community Support Services director (see Appendix II) or contact:

New Horizons

New Horizons is a federal government program which provides funding to groups of 10 or more retired persons to carry out projects of their own choosing for the benefit of themselves and others in the community.

Financial assistance is available to start up new activities or to expand existing activities within the community. Grants may cover expenses incurred in planning, organizing and operating activities including such items as rent, utilities, furniture and equipment, materials and supplies and minor renovations for space used. Limited funds are available for capital expenditures. The emphasis is on seniors being involved and participating in community events, on a voluntary basis.

Some typical projects include activities at drop-in centres, community services, crafts and hobbies, historical, cultural and educational projects, information services, sports, recreation, and performing arts.

New Horizons staff is available to meet with groups considering project activities prior to the preparation of applications.

Seniors Independence Program

The purpose of the Seniors Independence Program, which came into effect April 1, 1988, is to increase the capacity of Canadian seniors to act on their own behalf to improve their health, well-being and independence, and to enhance their quality of life.

The program's objectives are to:

- promote the involvement of seniors in the design and delivery of projects which affect their quality of life and independence,
- encourage and support the self-care and mutual aid efforts of seniors,
- promote the availability and accessibility of resources which support the health, education and social welfare of seniors.

Voluntary, non-government, non-profit groups and organizations may apply, including professional associations, educational institutions, health or social service agencies, and other para-public organizations.

The participation of senior citizens in the planning, development and implementation of the project is required.

Project applications may be for resource development, information sharing and training, developmental or demonstration projects. Potential applicants are urged to send in a one to three page summary of their planned project for comment by the Seniors Independence Program staff, prior to writing their full application.

Provincial and local consultation will be undertaken to ensure that projects do not duplicate existing services.

Representatives of voluntary organizations and agencies are invited to contact the New Horizons office to discuss possible projects under the Seniors Independence Program.

Alberta Recreation and Parks Local Recreation Programs

Alberta Recreation and Parks recognizes the challenge for all Albertans to develop meaningful leisure experiences that will contribute to a rich and satisfying life. The department is aware that delivery of services is best at the local or community level and therefore most activities are the responsibility of the municipal/local Recreation and Parks departments or boards.

Recreation opportunities for older Albertans include recreation centres, arts and crafts classes and exhibitions, outdoor learning at nature centres, fitness programs, Master's categories in sports (such as swimming, badminton, tennis and golf), Alberta Senior Games every two years, participatory events in Alberta Summer and Winter Games, and tours and exchange visits.

Your local recreation department can supply you with information about local programs, activities, interest groups and workshops. Funding for facilities may be available through the Community Recreation/Cultural Grant program, administered through the municipality. Consult your telephone directory for the number of your local municipal recreation department.

or your Family and Community Support Services office (see Appendix II).

Alberta Transportation and Utilities provides a per capita grant to cities, towns, counties, municipalities, improvement districts and incorporated villages and hamlets to aid them in developing transportation for the elderly and handicapped. The use of these funds is determined by the local government.

The Alberta Council on Aging has published a Transportation Handbook to assist rural areas in developing a service. This booklet is available from the Alberta Council on Aging at a small charge (see page 43 for address).

Handicapped Placard

A handicapped placard or sticker for your vehicle is available upon request to individuals of all ages who have a physical condition which makes mobility difficult. Placards are available from any office that issues Motor Vehicle Licenses. All requests must be accompanied by a letter from your physician verifying the condition as well as one piece of identification.

Further information is available through any Motor Vehicle Licence Issuer or by contacting:

Travel Discounts

Airline Discounts—Individuals age 62 and over may be eligible for travel discounts provided proof of age is shown. Discounts vary depending on destinations and type of fares. It is advisable to enquire about discounts when booking reservations.

Via Rail Canada provides a 10 percent discount to individuals age 60 years and over on regular fares.

Greyhound Bus provides a 10 percent discount to individuals age 65 years and over on regular fares. Excursion fares are usually excluded.

Red Arrow Express Bus provides some discounts to individuals 60 years and over. This bus travels between Calgary, Red Deer, Edmonton and Fort McMurray.

Legal Services

The Ombudsman of Alberta is empowered by the Legislative Assembly to investigate complaints against departments, boards and agencies of the provincial government. The only exemptions to the Ombudsman's authority are the actions of the courts, the Legislative Assembly, and government lawyers while they appear in court.

The Ombudsman's Office also functions as an information and referral resource. The size and complexity of the government can create problems for people who do not know who or what department to contact with a specific problem. The Office of the Ombudsman serves as a liaison in these instances by conveying correct information or referring people to the appropriate person, department, or agency.

The Ombudsman offices are located in Edmonton and Calgary. People living elsewhere in the province can contact the Office, toll-free, through a RITE operator or by dialing "0" and asking the operator for Zenith 22422.

Provincial Organizations for Seniors

Alberta Council on Aging

The Alberta Council on Aging (ACA) is a voluntary organization of groups and individuals concerned with the process of aging. It works toward change on both the individual and societal level, and toward enhancement of active community participation of seniors in society.

The ACA has a board of directors, the majority of whom are senior citizens, who are elected by its membership from various parts of Alberta. The board of directors is responsible for the development of organizational policy and program strategies.

The ACA acts as secretariat for the Interagency Council, a group of representatives of provincial non-government provincial organizations working with the elderly across Alberta. In this way it encourages communication and sharing of resources among senior groups and organizations without interfering with their autonomy.

The ACA has promoted senior involvement in areas such as health care, transportation, senior centre management, education, sports and recreation, the arts and law enforcement.

The ACA also publishes the ACA News, a current source of current information on issues concerning Alberta's seniors.

Membership—Individual $10/year, Organization $25/year, Joint (Couples) $15/year, Life $100 and Joint Life $150. Individual, joint, and life members receive one issue and organizations receive five issues each month of the ACA NEWS. The ACA News is published by the ACA ten times a year. In addition organizations have free use of the film/video library.

The ACA, with support from the Seniors Independence Program, has developed a unique service to meet the changing needs of senior citizens and their organizations. This innovative program, called the Seniors Consultant Program, utilizes retired experts to assist seniors' groups with their needs in the areas of leadership development, access to resources, programming and communication.

Canadian Pensioners Concerned, Alberta Division

This is a senior citizens' organization which concentrates its activities specifically in the area of financial concerns and problems of pensioners. The group believes that seniors' organizations whose work relates to education, recreation, travel and social activities are well-developed, whereas the area of financial concern requires specialized attention.

To achieve its aims, Canadian Pensioners Concerned becomes involved in researching areas of need, irregularities, discrepancies and general financial matters related to pensioners. It monitors legislation passed or proposed and makes its findings known to whichever government is involved by briefs, presentations and lobbying.

All the work of Canadian Pensioners Concerned is carried on by volunteers. Although Canadian Pensioners Concerned has been funded in the past by the federal New Horizons program, it is now completely self-supporting. Donations and contributions from members and the community are its only source of income to cover operating expenses.

Membership is available to individuals, senior citizens' groups and senior citizens' organizations such as drop-in centres.

A newsletter is published four times a year. It informs members of benefits available and legislation affecting pensioners.

Membership fees per year are: single members $6; married couples $8; organizations $10 (this includes newsletters).

Alberta Pensioners and Senior Citizens Organization

This voluntary organization is composed of local chapters in Alberta. The Alberta organization was founded in 1942 in Lethbridge, and is a member of the National Pensioners and Senior Citizens Federation.

The organization is concerned about pensions and other issues affecting the elderly.

Chapters meet regularly and hold an annual meeting at which proposed resolutions are voted on and forwarded to the appropriate bodies.

Alberta Senior Citizens Sport and Recreation Association

This association is a volunteer action group which promotes sport, recreation and fitness development for adults age 55 and over. It acts as the provincial voice and encourages and promotes participation at the local level in the Alberta Winter, Summer and Senior Games. The board of directors consists of an executive and representatives from branches in eight zones across the province. The annual membership fee is $5. Among the benefits for members are a monthly magazine, $15,000 sport accident insurance, and regular communication about province-wide events through the branch system.

Congratulatory Messages

From the Queen, Governor General, Prime Minister, or the Premier for Special Anniversaries and Special Birthdays

Premier of Alberta

A scroll may be requested for a 75th birthday and each fifth year thereafter to age 95; it may be requested yearly after that. A letter can be sent for a 30th to 49th wedding anniversary. A scroll may be requested for a 25th, 50th, 55th, 60th and 65th wedding anniversary as well as for each year after the 65th. Requests should be directed to the Correspondence Office of the Premier of Alberta, Room 502, Legislature Building, Edmonton, T5K 2B6. The telephone number is 427-5102. You can also contact your Member of the Legislative Assembly (M.L.A.). Requests should be made one month prior to the special birthday or anniversary.

The Queen of Canada

On request, message may be arranged for the 60th wedding anniversaries and 100th birthdays and every five years thereafter. If no message was previously received, one may be sent for the 61st anniversary or the 101st birthday for example. A copy of a marriage or birth certificate or other supporting document must accompany each request.

Governor General of Canada

On request, message may be arranged for the 50th wedding anniversaries and the 90th birthdays, then every five years thereafter. If no message was previously received, one may be sent for the 51st anniversary or the 91st birthday for example.

Requests for messages from The Queen and the Governor General should be received at least two months in advance of the occasion and should include supporting documents where required. Further information may be obtained from the Anniversary Section, Rideau Hall, Ottawa, K1A 0A1, or from your Member of Parliament (MP).

Prime Minister of Canada

A scroll can be sent for a 75th birthday and each fifth year afterward. A letter can be sent for a 25th to 49th wedding anniversary with 5 year intervals if requested. A scroll can be sent on a 50th wedding anniversary and thereafter as requested. Requests for messages should be received at least 6 weeks in advance of the special date. Information is available from the office of the Prime Minister, Room 105, Langevin Block, Ottawa, K1A 0A2 or from your Member of Parliament (MP).
